"I attended the concert with my thirteen year old granddaughter and we were both delighted when it was announced that Jackie would be performing a variety of songs from her new album which is scheduled for release in October.

We watched her on AGT but experiencing Jackie's beautiful voice LIVE was truly an unforgettable experience."

"Had the profound pleasure of performing with an outstanding orchestra last night, at the McCallum Theatre. We were backing up a truly rare talent, Jackie Evancho.

Now I've got some idea what it must have been like for those witnessing the child Mozart. Unbelievable, and deeply moving."

"Being a member of the community of musicians makes you aware of some "markers" distinguishing posers from artistic masters. There are pieces I've been playing for decades that are popular enough that I've played them thousands of times - and for me it's that repetition that's given me enough mastery of those tunes that I now can make them seem effortless.

Knowing this, and knowing that Ms. Evancho achieves this with EVERY SONG, EVERY NOTE that she shares with us, just leaves me gasping in wonder."

"As the orchestra started to play, the audience fell silent. Jackie started to sing. She sang so beautifully, so precise, so amazing. When Jackie finished that first song, there was a brief moment of silence when people were trying to understand "What just happened? Was that for real?" All at once the audience EXPLODES into applause. So loud was the applause I thought for sure the ceiling was coming down. It must have lasted for 5 minutes!"
