"It has been wonderful to watch her evolve from a 10 year old to a 13 year old. She gets stronger all the time!"

"I flew in from Hawaii, met my cousin, and then we went to Cupertino to see her live concert and it was worth every single cent!!

I only hope in the near future that she'll come to Oahu, HI."

"I loved watching her sing to the children from the audience, and when she sang the Lord's Prayer!"

"Just got back from Long Beach and one of the best Jackie Concerts I've ever seen. I spoke with Jackie about getting enough rest and her schedule. She was very bubbly and said, "I'm fine no worries". There was a packed house with several standing ovations. She's still the kid we all know and love. She loves to giggle and wave."

Thank you little one!

"Several minutes passed, and finally Jackie came back on stage to sing The Music Of The Night. When Jackie sang this, there was almost no more that she could give. She had laid her all out like a grand ethereal blanket upon the astonished audience. She hit all of the notes, completely reveling in the dark Phantom song, somehow embodying fleeing and intense Lloyd-Webber passion. Jackie said "Night!" one last time, did some double waves, and as she headed for the curtains, clearly said, "I love you!" to the audience."

"A friend lent me his Jackie Ghost Bride tie, and he wore his PTAD one with Jackie beautifully posed in front of a tree. When Jackie first came out on stage the ties caught her attention, and she returned the warmest expression of amusement to both of us."

"I was thrilled to hear four songs that I'd never heard her sing in concert: White Christmas, Walking in the Air, and Believe were unexpected treats, and she sang them all beautifully. I was impressed by how much more mature and powerful Jackie's voice was since I last heard her in Las Vegas."

"Many in the orchestra applauded her by hand rather than the customary bow tapping. The concertmaster, who appeared to be quite taken by Jackie, set the example. He applauded often."

"Jackie brought 4 girls on stage, plus the winner of Thailand's Got Talent and her Sister. They all sat on the stage for two songs.

Jackie asked them "what would make the world a better place?" One said "world Peace", one said "be nice to one another", one said "CHOCOLATE!". She wins. The house looked full, and gave her an extended S.O. before and after the encore.

I brought five people with me. Two of them were choir directors. The two choir directors were blown away by Jackie. Both have a long history of gold medals at national competitions. They know singing."

"My daughter was so excited that you signed their programs that she had tears in her eyes and couldn't calm down to sleep until well past midnight. You will bring so much joy to so many throughout your lifetime. Thank you and your family for following your dream." - JS

"The audience stomped their feet and clapped their hands as one, and Jackie encored, commenting "you guys are sure enthusiastic!" Jackie swallowed Music Of The Night whole, somehow delving fully into the darkness of the Phantom's world. Jackie worked as hard as she could in this concert."
