"Her introduction to White Christmas was very cute.

As part of the intro, she said that she had bought presents for her family, and she couldn't wait to see them open the presents because she knew that they'd like their gifts because she had bought them. We really couldn't hear it all because she was giggling as she said it."

"A girl with her mom and dad asked about our buttons. I had an extra button and gave it to her. Another fan had an extra ticket for 4th row and asked if they wanted it. The whole family was able to get within the first 4 rows thanks to other generous fans.

Later I told them that some front row seats were not in-use. It didn't take too much convincing for the little girl to go in the front row.

When Jackie left the stage, she walked up and gave the girl a big High-five. She was so thrilled! I have no doubt that Jackie made that little girl's day." - Varnik.

"Clearly the child of yesteryear is on her way to becoming an adult though she is quite a few years away yet."

"You're listening to a professional at the apex of her craft when she's singing, and then you come crashing down back to earth to a little girl saying "Thank you" and giggling and doing her signature double wave. She possesses a quiet dignity and grace and exuberance that is reminiscent of Grace Kelly, Jacqueline Bouvier Kennedy and Lady Diana."

"Nothing is more disappointing than the end of a Jackie Evancho concert. Tonight was my 5th disappointment. The concert ended too soon for me."
 - Anwaar

"I believe Jackie enjoyed the atmosphere at Celebrity Theatre and the rotating stage. There was one moment when the stage came to a stop at the end of one of the songs, and when it came time for the next song, Jackie was caught just a little off guard as the stage started its rotation. Jackie had the slightest loss of balance and then recovered with an adorable smile and giggle... it was very endearing."
- blackandgold

"This was pretty clearly another step in the direction of greater maturity in all aspects of the concert, from confident vocals to stage presence to fan interaction." - joemerk
